We're excited to launch Flannel Fridays! Each Friday, we invite everyone to wear flannel as a fun way to bring warmth, smiles, and togetherness to our community.

My life has been the poem I would have writ; But I could not both live and utter it.
-Henry David Thoreau

We have come around again to the month of valentines and hearts, flowers and chocolates and sentimental sayings. We share words of love with others, and perhaps we also feel grief when remembering those loves we've lost. This year, consider offering some words of love to yourself. If your life, like Thoreau's were a poem, what words would it include? What parts of you would it celebrate? Have you persevered through a challenge? Survived a heartbreak? Risen to a challenge? What words would you use to describe what is most lovable about you? How would you put into words the arc of your life? Poems don't have to rhyme, and they don't even have to be long. Try writing a short love poem to yourself this month. And if you're feeling brave, find someone to share it with! Love grows when we share it with others.

Sincerely,
Chaplain Kent
